

A COLORED MAN ON THE SITUATION.—The well-known colored lawyer, Robert Morris, of Boston, in an interview held a few days ago, with a representative of the Boston Post, held the following language:

"I made up my mind long since that Horace Greeley was the man of all others who would look out for the best interests of the colored people, and am firmly impressed with that idea. I have concluded to cast my vote for him in November. I regard it as the best nomination that could have been made. Mr. Greeley has shown by his whole life that he is a capable, upright and honest man, and that's the kind of man we need at the head of the Government. He has always stood by the black man, and when I think how he has arisen from the humble condition of his boyhood to his present proud position by his own exertions, I cannot believe he is going to be swayed from the path which a conscientious regard for the interests of the black man points out."

As regards the sentiments of the colored people in general, he further said: "The colored people everywhere, are anxiously waiting for Senator Sumner to speak out, and then we shall know how they will stand in the coming contest. I may say that my action will be influenced by whatever Mr. Sumner says also. I consider the treatment which Mr. Sumner has received at the hands of the Republicans, a direct insult to the colored men, whom he has always defended. I hold that party responsible for the defeat of all the measures which have been brought forward for the amelioration of the condition of the colored men, and I hope they will soon learn a lesson showing them the folly of such proceedings. We all look upon him as our tried and trusted leader. He has unflinchingly stood up for us all through our struggles for our rights, and we feel confident that he will continue to defend our cause and tell us who are our friends and who are our enemies."

The following expresses his opinion of carpet-baggers and the origin of Ku Klux: "The Republican party has spent all its time and energy in taking measures for what they call the protection of the black men in the South. But what has it all amounted to? The only result of their labors has been a lot of carpet-baggers, who have gone far to destroy every vestige of good government in the South. If they had just let the negroes alone, and let them have the right to protect themselves, there would never have been such an organization as the Ku Klux heard of."

THE TRANSIT OF VENUS.—The transit of planet Venus across the sun's disc will occur on December 3, 1874. This phenomenon, which is expected to be of great interest, not only to astronomy, but to the natural and physical history of the globe, has not occurred since 1764. At that early date France had observed in India, California and Santo Domingo; England, in South America, the Pacific Ocean, at Madras and Cambridge; and Russia at Yakoutsk, Astrakhan and Liponts. The United States, Russia, Germany and England, have already appointed observers for the occasion. The French Academy of Science, at the request of the minister of public instruction, in 1870, asked for nine stations of observation, and appropriation of 800,000 francs. The war prevented the granting of the request, but M. Jules Simon has already submitted a proposition for an appropriation of 100,000 francs, with the understanding that 200,000 more shall be granted in 1874.

Mr. Jackson, who made an ascent in a balloon from the Derby (England) Arboretum, during a thunder storm, sends to the Derby Mercury an account of what he saw: "I believe I witnessed a sight that has never been seen before. In one direction the black storm was raging in all its fury. At times the lightning ran from top to bottom in zig-zag form. This produced rolling thunder. At other times the great black blocks would split open, and a loud clap of thunder would follow. The lightning appeared bluer and thunder appeared more hollow than is seen and heard from the earth. Over those parts that the storm had past there appeared light clouds, moving in another direction, and looked like white smoke issuing from a fire without flame."

The latest sensation in Iowa City is the suicide of a cow. The cause of the deed was the killing of her calf. The Iowa City Press describes her actions: "The cow was frantic at this slaughter of her innocent, and after chasing the butcher's wagon to the slaughter-house door, and bellowing a good-bye to her infant, she repaired to the river near Dillon's Island, and wading in beyond her depth, committed suicide by drowning."

A small, and envious newspaper, tells this on a large journal: "A lady and gentleman were recently robbed, in Judea, by Arabs, who stripped them of all their clothing. They begged their captors to return them a copy of the London Times. The Arabs yielded to the request, and the pair, the gentleman attired in the regular issue, and the lady in the supplement, returned to Jerusalem."

An Indianapolis paper says: "There are at present, by actual count, but fourteen young men in the city who part their hair in the middle. One year ago, they mustered over 200, but death and the lunatic asylum have cut down their number to the present figure."

A wild man has been taken in Florida with half all over his body. He is supposed to be a deserter from the army, but why anything of that kind should give him his hair covering is a mystery.

If you want to have a statue set up in your honor as the tribute of a grateful people, go to Minnesota and invent a bed-bug exterminator.

THE DAILY PHOENIX.

"Let our just Censures

Attend the True Event."

BY J. A. SELBY.

COLUMBIA, S. C., TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 3, 1872.

VOL. VIII—NO. 113

A few days since, one of our popular attorneys called upon another member of the profession, and asked his opinion upon a certain point in law. The lawyer to whom the question was addressed, drew himself up and said: "I generally get paid for what I know." The questioner drew a half dollar "fractional" from his pocket, handed it to the other and coolly remarked: "Tell me all you know and give me the change." There is coldness between the parties now.

Henry Ward Beecher said to his congregation, in a sermon on home life and hospitality, "I honor the woman who comes to me when I call, in a dress suited to her work. I don't like to sit buried in plush, in the parlor, waiting three-quarters of an hour for a toilet. What is good enough for you is good enough for your friends."

The advertising agency of Walker, Evans & Cogswell, represented by Roswell T. Logan, Esq., is the only authorized agency for this paper in Charleston.

CAMPAIGN NEWS.—The Presidential campaign is now upon us, and is destined to prove the most exciting and interesting one that we have had for many years. We are determined to furnish our readers with the fullest and freshest information from all quarters of the Union, as the campaign progresses, and to this end will increase the number of our news columns, so that the PHOENIX will contain for the campaign more reading matter than any daily paper at the capital, and as much as either of our Charleston contemporaries. To the citizens of the upper Counties of the State, the PHOENIX, as furnishing news twenty-four hours ahead of the Charleston newspapers, particularly addresses itself. All ye who feel an interest in the election of Greeley and Gratz Brown, and desire to know the correct status of the campaign as each new development is made, send in your subscriptions to the PHOENIX, either daily or tri-weekly. We promise you a lively, readable and reliable paper. Send for specimen copies.

AND buy your SPECTACLES from the celebrated so-called Professor ST. BERNARD, who has just returned from the Alps, Switzerland, where he gathered with his own hands some of the celebrated Australian, Brazilian and South American pebbles, which he has out and polished with his own hands, and by the sweat of his brow.

He has also brought with him his big dog, "YOU KNOW," also, that great instrument which will cure any disease of the eye just by looking at it. If you don't believe it, come and see for yourselves.

The last time I was here in these diggings, everybody said I was a humbug, and would not come here again; but it ain't so. I will be here again to try to swindle you, just as I did before. ST. BERNARD, Recommended by all the leading M. D.'s, D. D.'s, and the (ez)press. July 30

Special Notices.

The Wear and Tear of Life.—The cares, anxieties and misfortunes of life have as much to do with shortening it as disease. They are, in fact, the source of many ailments and physical disabilities. Nervous weakness, dyspepsia, affections of the liver, disturbances of the bowels, headaches, hypochondria and monomania are among these distressing fruits. It is, therefore, of great importance that persons whose minds are oppressed with heavy business responsibilities, or harassed by family troubles, or excited by speculation, or perplexed by a multiplicity of enterprises, or in any way over-taxed or over-worked, should keep up their stamina by the daily use of a wholesome tonic. Thousands of persons thus circumstanced are enabled to bear up against the difficulties in which they are involved, and to retain their strength, health and mental clearness, by the regular use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Diseases which are prone to attack the body when debilitated and broken down by over-much brain-work, and excessive physical labor, are kept at bay by the resistance power which this incomparable tonic endows the nervous system and the vital organs. At this season, when the heat is evaporating the elements of strength from every pore, an invigorant is absolutely essential to the safety and comfort of the public, and is required even by the more robust, when they desire a course of Hostetter's Bitters to keep their athletic capabilities in status quo. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS, already famous as the finest invigorant, corrective and alterative, that has ever been the light. Dyspepsia and persons of bilious habit should keep it within reach, if they value health and ease.

Burnett's Coconut Oil.—A compound of Coconut Oil, &c., for the Hair, has established a world-wide reputation. For sale by all Druggists.

Magic of the Mouth.—Odiferous Sordid renders the mouth enchanting, composed of rare, antiseptic herbs, it imparts whiteness to the teeth, a delicious flower-like aroma to the breath, and preserves intact, from youth to age, the teeth.

Patent Astral Oil.—More accidents occur from using kerosene oil than from steamboats and railroads combined. Over 200,000 families continue to burn Pratt's Astral Oil, and no accidents, directly or indirectly, have occurred from burning, storing or handling it. Oil House of Charles Pratt, established 1770, New York.
